A 40 years old female presented to emergency clinic with a complained of sudden painful decreased in vision in RE associated with watering, pulling sensation, redness, FB sensation and severe headache in right temporal region since 1 day. The distance visual acuity was 20/100p, 20/50 and near visual acuity was 6/24, 6/18 in RE and LE respectively. Slit lamp examination showed edematous lid, congested conjunctiva, corneal haze, microcystic edema and pigments on endothelium and pupil was dilated and fixed in RE. LE was WNL. Fundus examination showed 0.7 CDR with NRR thinning in RE. LE was WNL.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- History taking in glaucoma
- Differentiation between PACS, PAC and PACG
- Introduction to Acute angle closure glaucoma
- Various causes of acute angle closure glaucoma
- What is ciliary shock?

REFERENCES: